

Lesson 1: You're the Judges!

Criteria list

My work makes people laugh

I don't harm any animals in my work

I go to events, like lectures, to tell people about my work

My work will save some lives, but not many people have the disease I study

Won't save any lives but will seriously improve lots of lives (e.g. helping people to walk again)

My conclusions are based on lots of accurate data

My work will improve the field of cosmetic plastic surgery

My work could make me a lot of money

I am married

My work could help me to get a Nobel Prize

I'm very good-looking

My work will help us to protect the environment

My work will help make cars that go faster

My work will help us create replacements for plastics that we currently make out of oil

Lots of other scientists think my work is wrong

I give lots of money to charity

I use instruments we have had in our lab for years. I know there's newer ones on the market but I'd rather spend the money on other things.

I drive a sports car.

My work will help us understand in more detail how animals that live in the desert adapt to their surroundings

I believe in God

I don't believe in God

My work will help us to understand how our brains work

My work will help us explore space

I'm wearing really cool trainers

My work will help companies make more money

My work will mean more people can have access to safe drinking water

My work will create new knowledge

My work will help people around the world to communicate faster

I'm an orphan

Lots of other scientists think my work is right

I have tested my theory in lots of ways and haven't been able to disprove it